

After the oral doctoral examination:

An electronic version of the dissertation is sent to the reviewers for approval for printing. After checking, the examiners give permission for printing by sending an e-mail with the following text to candidate, and cc to promotion@fb6.rwth-aachen.de:

For the electronic version of the dissertation of ... submitted to me, I hereby grant permission for publication. Possibly previously ordered editions were fulfilled. This permission fulfills § 17 (1) of the doctoral regulations of the Faculty of Electrical Engineering and Information Technology.

The sample for the title page of the required copies after passing the doctoral examination, format DIN A5, is available for download at the website <http://www.elektrotechnik.rwth-aachen.de/cms/Elektrotechnik-und-Informationstechnik/Studium/Studieren-Promotion/~gal/Downloads/?lidx=1>

Number of printed dissertation copies to be submitted:

in the case of electronic publication:

1 copy to the university library, (number of reviewers + 2) copies as well as the receipt of the university library to the faculty.

Publication by a publisher:

14 copies to the university library, (number of reviewers + 2) copies as well as the receipt of the university library and the confirmation of the publisher that at least 150 copies were printed to the faculty.

Publication in scientific journal:

14 copies to the university library, (number of reviewers + 2) copies as well as the receipt of the university library to the faculty. In addition, e.g. on the back of the title page, it must be stated which journal published the text (with details of publisher and place of publication); all required copies must be marked "D 82 (Diss. RWTH Aachen University, [name of year of oral examination])".

30 copies in the university library, (number of reviewers + 2) copies as well as the receipt of the university library in the faculty.

After submitting the copies and the confirmation of the University Library in the Dean's Office, the reviewers will receive a printed copy for further checking. As soon as the Dean's Office receives the written confirmation from the reviewers that the copy submitted corresponds to the approved version, the preparation of the doctoral certificate is initiated.
